Profiling

● Your Profiling

Personal profiling is the first step in career planning. The purpose of profiling is to understand your current career planning stage. It will help decide your career objective and roadmap. The ultimate aim of the planning is to take you from the current stage of career planning to the optimized stage of career planning. Personal profiling includes information about your current stage, the risk involved and action plan for your career development.

Current Stage of Planning

Diffused

Diffused: You are at the diffused stage in career planning. We understand that you have a fair idea of your suitable career. At this stage, you have a better understanding of career options. However, you are looking for more information to understand the complete career path for yourself and an execution plan to achieve it. Lack of complete information and execution plan can adversely impact your career. Most career decisions are based on limited information

Risk Involved: Career misalignment, career path misjudgment, wrong career path projections, unnecessary stress

Action Plan : Explore career path > Align your abilities and interests with the best possible career path > Realistic Execution Plan > Timely Review of Action Plan

Read/Write Learning Style

- Reading and writing learners prefer to take in information displayed as words.
- Learning materials that are primarily text-based are strongly preferred by these learners.
- Emphasis is based on text based input and output i.e reading and writing in all its forms
- People who prefer this modality love to work using PowerPoint, the internet, lists, dictionaries and words

Kinesthetic Learners

- Kinesthetic (or tactile) learners learn best by touching and doing.
- Hands-on experience is important to kinesthetic learners.
- It includes demonstrations, simulations, videos and movies of “real” things, as well as case studies, practice and applications.
- Sometimes, It can be difficult for the individuals with this learning preference to sit still for long periods.
